

Special Skills Camp with Erikka!

Erikka Gulbranson has over 13 years of coaching experience to her credit, including junior club, high school, college, international, individual, camp, and clinic experience. At the university level, Erikka has served as an assistant at CSUB, University of Idaho, Utah State University, and University of Southern California. The past four summers, Gulbranson has been coaching with USA Volleyball in international competition. After serving two seasons as an assistant coach, Gulbranson became the USA Girls Youth National Team head coach and led the team to a fourth place finish at the FIVB U-18 World Championships in China in 2005. She is currently a Lead Instructor for the USA High Performance Program.

Ashley Dean enters her fourth season as assistant coach at Northeastern after helping lead the Huskies to a 20-11 overall record and an 11-3 conference mark in 2004. In the Huskies first season in the Colonial Athletic Association she helped head coach Ken Nichols to a tie for sixth place. Dean is the co-director of the Husky Tune Up, clinic held every year in August. She works to co-ordinate practices and training sessions and instruct players on skill development. She serves as the recruiting coordinator for Coach Nichols and oversees the fundraising and community service projects.

Dean came to Northeastern following a standout-playing career at Dartmouth. The La Jolla, Calif., native served as team captain in 2000 and 2001 and was an All-Ivy League selection from 1999-2001. She was a first team selection at the Ivy League Tournament in 1999. She still holds the record for career digs (1,1481).

Dean was invited to coach at the USA High Performance Select A2 Team at the Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs in July and serves as a court coach and evaluator for Youth and National High Performance Tryouts at various sites around the country throughout the club season.

This will be an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in volleyball. It is a great way to brush up on your skills during the off season and prepare for volleyball season starting in the Fall. If you have any questions please contact Richard Haner at alpinevbc@msn.com
